

The Importance of Social Security to Arkansans

Nearly 20% of the population in Arkansas receives Social Security Benefits.
More than 528,840 beneficiaries

| | |
|------------------|-----------------------|
| Retired Workers | 302,380 beneficiaries |
| Their dependents | 32,960 beneficiaries |

About 40% of these beneficiaries are not retired workers.

| | |
|------------------|----------------------|
| Disabled workers | 84,890 beneficiaries |
| Their dependents | 26,000 beneficiaries |

| | |
|-----------|----------------------|
| Survivors | 82,610 beneficiaries |
|-----------|----------------------|

In 2003, $5.0 billion flowed into the Arkansas economy through Social Security benefits.

Under the President's proposal Arkansas could stand to lose more than $2 billion in revenue